JAPANESE EXCESSES IN NANKING

Lack Of Discipline

London, January 28.

The "Daily Telegraph" stars a long authenticated report of Japanese excesses in Nanking and the failure of the Japanese authorities to repress them. Increasing attention is given by all papers to this subject, confirming the belief of a lack of discipline between the Japanese. It is generally opined that the Chinese comeback is embarrassing the Japanese more than they care to admit, and evidences of the increasing Sino-Russian intimacy excite very wide interest.

Business circles point out that the legality of Japan's claim to censor foreign cables is more than doubtful and it is expected when Parliament re-assembles the Government will be pressed to take a much firmer attitude in this connection.

Doubts regarding Japan's financial stability is evidenced by the increasing charges made for discounting Japanese bills. The P. & O. s.s. Ranpura arrived at Plymouth yesterday and brought £3,000,000 worth of treasure from the Chinese people in the war zones, mostly silver coins. Some articles have been sent to England for safety.

Silver shipments from Hong Kong to date are estimated at thirty million sterling, about two-thirds of which has been converted into gold, part of which had been spent on armaments though very little in England, most of it going to the Continental armament firms.—(Reuter).

POPULARITY OF MACAO

Heavy Steamer Bookings

Steamer bookings show that Macao is more popular than Canton at this time for holiday tourists from Hong Kong than in previous years.

Inquiries at the offices of the various companies reveal that bookings to Macao are unusually heavy. The Hong Kong, Canton and Macao Steamboat Company are running two excursion trips, one on Sunday and another on Monday, New Yera's Day, by the s.s. Kinshan. The boat leaves Hong Kong on both occasions at 9.30 a.m. and returns from Macao at 5 p.m.

CHINESE RECAPTURE TWO TOWNS

Hankow, Jan. 28.

After several days lull in operations on the southern sector of the Tientsin-Pukow Front, the Japanese resumed their offensive rather unexpectedly on Friday morning. Chinese positions on the northern bank of a small river which runs between Mingkuan and Linghaikuan were subjected to intensive bombardment. While Chinese regulars are pushing forward towards Chaofoo, irregulars recaptured two towns south of the Tsingtao-Tsinan Railway from the Japanese on Thursday.—(Transocean).

13 SMALL-POX CASES

Thirteen cases of small-pox, two of diphtheria, one of cerebro-spinal fever and three of dysentery were reported to the local Health Authorities during the 24 hours ended at midnight on Thursday.

JAPANESE SEEK TO TAKE OVER POWER CONTROL

New Company With Huge Capital

Tokyo, Jan. 28.

Japanese power interests are organising a "new Central China Electric Company" for the purpose of taking over the Chapei Power Company in Shanghai and also absorbing the Shanghai Power Company, declares the "Industrial Daily News"

Capitalised at 45,000,000 yen and with the head office in Shanghai, the new concern, the newspaper adds, will assume management of all existing power companies in cities between Shanghai, Nanking and Hangchow and will later merge with North China Electric Power and Development Company of Tientsin.

The journal adds that Mr. Euchi Okabe, managing director of the Tokyo Electric Light Company, is at present in Shanghai conducting negotiations.—(Reuter).

BRITISH CONSUL PROTESTS

JAPANESE CENSORS' REGULATIONS MODIFIED

Shanghai, Jan. 28.

The British Consul-General, Mr. Herbert Philipps, has sent three written protests to the Japanese Consul-General, Mr. Okamoto.

The protests are against the proposed censorship of commercial telegrams and says that His Majesty's Government does not admit of any Japanese right to censor such telegrams; against the suppression of a Reuter telegram and the second suppression of a telegram sent by Mr. H. J. Timperley, both on January 21 and against the deletion, by Japanese censors, of 90 words from a telegram filed by Mr. Timperley to the "Manchester Guardian" on January 27.

It is understood that the Americans are also taking up parallel lines with the British in the matter of censorship of commercial telegrams.

AMERICAN PROTEST

Shanghai, Jan. 28.

It is understood that the Japanese are modifying regulations governing censorship of commercial telegrams. They will accept coded telegrams from British firms who obtain a certificate from the British Consulate and will not demand to see private codes.

A Japanese Embassy spokesman announced that a protest has been received from the American Consul-General, Mr. Clarence Gauss, concerning the new regulations.—(Reuter).

REWARD FOR GALLANTRY

PRESENTATION TO GUNNER OCKWELL

Gallantry shown by Gunner H. V. Ockwell during the typhoon last September was rewarded yesterday by the presentation of a watch at a small ceremony in the private office of Messrs. Mackinnon Mackenzie & Co., agents of the British India Steam Navigation Co., Ltd.

Making the presentation, the Honourable Mr. M. T. Johnson, resident partner of Messrs. Mackinnon Mackenzie and Co., related how, during the typhoon which passed over the Colony in the early hours of September 2 when the steamship Talamba was blown from her anchorage in Junk Bay and grounded at Lyeemun Pass, Gunner Ockwell risked his life to swim off to the ship in a dangerously rough sea in an attempt to convey a line from the shore.

"In recognition of your gallant action I have been instructed by the directors of the British India Steam Navigation Company, Ltd., to tender to you the thanks of the Company and, as a concrete evidence of their appreciation, to present to you this watch," said Mr. Johnson.

Gunner Ockwell suitably replied.

Those present included Captain D. J. Sinclair of the s.s. Talamba, Mr. F. A. Spencely Chief Officer, Gunner R. Ford and Messrs. T. G. S. Alexander, Dr. W. MacEwen and A. W. Hay-Edie.

Manifesto Issued By Sugiyama

NECESSITY FOR PROTRACTED CONFLICT

Tokyo, Jan. 28.

The Japanese War Minister, General Sugiyama today issued a manifesto to the fighting forces stressing that the current China situation was gradually assuming important proportions and fast developing in gravity. The Japanese Government, he said, had recently clarified a firm immutable policy to meet it and the path the nation should follow to face the emergency.

Declaring that the Japanese objective was far distant, General Sugiyama stressed the necessity to prepare for a protracted conflict, but it must be done with a strong will. Strict discipline and national spirit must be promoted and the people's support of the army and navy stabilised to attain the objective of the present "sacred war."—(Reuter).

ANOTHER BOMB OUTRAGE

EXPLOSION IN SETTLEMENT

Outside Japanese Censors' Office

Shanghai, Jan. 28.

Another bomb outrage was committed by unknown perpetrators in the centre of the International Settlement on Friday morning.

The bomb, which had been deposited outside a building containing Japanese censorship offices for Chinese newspapers, in Nanking Road, exploded with a violent detonation, causing considerable material damage.

Fortunately no person was hurt as there was comparatively little little traffic in Nanking Road, which is one of the busiest thoroughfares in the International Settlement.

The explosion occurred at an early hour.—(Transocean).

NO ARRESTS MADE

Shanghai, Jan 28.

An attempt was made this morning to throw hand-grenades through a transom into offices occupied by Japanese censors, supervising newspapers in the new Hardoon Building. The bombs hit the woodwork, rebounded and exploded outside the doors. There were no casualties and no arrests have been made.

It is noteworthy that censors supervising Chinese newspapers operate separately from the censors of foreign cables in the building.—(Reuter).

ITALIAN SECTOR INCIDENT

Shanghai, Jan. 28.

Two hand-grenades were thrown from a railless tramcar in the Italian defence sector in the Settlement after nightfall and exploded between the gates of a Japanese cotton mill and Italian sentries belonging to the Savoy Grenadiers.

There were no casualties.—(Reuter).

CHINA CLIPPER DELAYED

Air Mail Due Here On Wednesday

Hong Kong residents will not receive their air mail from America until Wednesday, February 2, owing to the China Clipper being held up in Honolulu. Originally due to arrive today, the flying boat experienced a slight oil leakeage and had to return to Honolulu for repairs. She is due to leave Honolulu this morning, and will arrive here on Wednesday. She will stop overnight in Hong Kong and take off on her outward flight the next day.

The Hawaiian Clipper is due in Hong Kong on Saturday, February 5, and will leave the next morning.

The C.N.A.C. plane which left Kai Tak Airport yesterday morning for Chungking was forced by bad weather to stay overnight at Kweilin. It is expected that the trip will be resumed today. The plane carried the following passengers:—

Messrs. O. Wilke, M. S. Polin, P. L. Tong, D. C. Yeung, Pang Kum, K. L. Woo and Chan Yung.

CHURCHILL CRITICISED

Japan Public Sentiment Against Britain

"HIGHLY INDIGNANT"

Tokyo, January 28.

"Public sentiment in Japan is highly indignant against Great Britain," says the "Japan Times" in a leading article in which it criticises a recent article in the "Evening Standard" (London) by the celebrated British statesman, Mr. Winston Churchill.

Mr. Churchill, says the "Japan Times" plans to make a catspaw of the United States.

"Great Britain," the paper declared, "is afraid to take any action alone. Therefore, Mr. Churchill advocates that America does her dirty work." The impression that relations between Japan and the United States are greatly strained is erroneous, the journal goes on. It declares, "It is true that there is tense feeling between Great Britain and Japan because England has been slandering Japan, aiding China and trying to intefere with Japan's actions. Public sentiment in Japan is highly indignant against Great Britain."—(Reuter).

NOT JOINING PROVISIONAL GOVERNMENT

Mr. Tong Shao-yi's Denial

Shanghai, Jan. 28.

A denial of the reports recently circulated to the effect that he may shortly join the so-called "provisional Government of Peiping" was made by Mr. Tong Shao-yi, China's first Republican Premier.

Interviewed by Reuters correspondent in the French Concession, Shanghai, today, Mr. Tong said: "I think the Chinese people know my record and my character well enough to make it quite unnecessary for me to speak." He emphasised that never in his long political career had he ever taken the trouble to correct mis-statements about his political intentions or actions.

He characterised the Japanese reports about his possible participation in the "provisional Government" as complete nonsense. He said, 'I only have a few years of life before me and I have one ambition only—to go back to my home in Tongkawan, Chungshan district, Kwangtung."

Mr. Tong, however, has been advised that it would not be safe for him to return to his home as the native district is subject to Japanese air raids and he therefore is remaining in Shanghai for the time being.—(Reuter).

CHINESE PLANES NOT DESTROYED

Hankow, Jan. 28.

The claim made by the Japanese that three Chinese planes were destroyed on the ground, and seven others shot down, in aerial combat by Japanese machines during the raid on Nanchang on Thursday morning is denied here.

The Chinese aviation headquarters in a statement today says: "Because of the low ceiling prevailing Japanese planes flew very low when bombing Nanchang aerodrome. After dropping bombs on the airfield the Japanese planes immediately went up behind a cloudbank where, after a brief engagement with Chinese pursuit planes they they left.

The Chinese side suffered no casualties and no planes were damaged. With the exception of a small house which caught fire no damage was done on the ground.—(Reuter).

"MACBETH" AT UNIVERSITY

The Hong Kong University Arts Association staged a production of Shakespeare's "Macbeth" in the Great Hall of the University last night. Among those present were H.E. the Governor and Lady Northcote and Mr. D. J. Sloss, Vice-Chancellor.

Miss Rose Pau as Lady Macbeth was an outstanding player. She delivered her lines with steady confidence, unmarred by the fault of accent of most of the cast, and entered generally into the character which she was portraying with fine ability.

Macbeth was played by Mr. Cheung Wing-ngok, who gained immense success as the Tiger General in "Lady Precious Stream."

TENANT'S ROOM RAIDED IN ABSENCE

Court Gives Judgment Against Landlord

Judgment for plaintiff with costs was delivered by the Puisne Judge, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindsell, in the Summary Court, yesterday, in the case of D. G. Kozikis against K. Boradin, claiming $140.80 in respect of salary, travelling expenses and damages.

The plaintiff, of Dimson and Company, Prince's Building, was represented by Mr. P. M. Hodgson, while the defendant, of No. 38B, Hankow Road, appeared in person.

The plaintiff's claim was made up as follows: $75 salary under contract of services as manager of the defendant's restaurant at No. 38B, Hankow Road, for the period September 1 to September 29 last; $5.80 for transportation as agreed, and $60 damages for damage done to goods of the plaintiff at No. 20, Jordan Road, through the negligence and fault of the defendant on or about October 25.

Outlining the case for the plaintiff, Mr. Hodgson said that plaintiff, with his wife and a child rented from defendant at No. 20, Jordan Road, ground floor which is defendant's boarding house, two rooms and an amah's room, at $50 a month. Plaintiff paid $20 in advance and an acknowledgement was received.

GAVE UP ROOM

On August 26 or 27, at defendant's request, plaintiff gave up one room and the rent then became $30 a month. On September 5, plaintiff paid to defendant a further sum of $62.85, covering board and lodging, for September.

On September 7, plaintiff paid to defendant $15 in advance, in respect of October. On October 10, defendant gave notice to plaintiff to vacate the room on October 31, which Counsel contended, was a bad notice.

On October 31, prior to vacating the room, plaintiff paid to defendant the balance owing and an acknowledgment was made.

Defendant rendered a counterclaim against plaintiff, which Mr. Hodgson submitted, had nothing to do with the case.

Dealing with the $60 damages, Counsel submitted that on October 25, five days before the termination of defendant's notice to plaintiff, the plaintiff went out at 9 a.m., with his wife, and defendant, during their absence, obtained a key to the room from the amah, raided plaintiff's room and moved out all their belongings, some of which were put in the amah's room.

POLICE CALLED IN

Returning at 1 p.m., plaintiff was astonished and protested. Defendant was alleged to have said that he had the permission of the police to do that. Plaintiff immediately went to the Yaumati Police Station and returned with a sergeant who told the defendant that he had no right to do that. Defendant replied to the effect that he was the boss and could therefore do what he liked.

From October 25 to 31 plaintiff and his wife and child had to live in the amah's room.

Certain goods, including 20 gramophone records, were damaged by rain on account of the removal into the amah's room, on October 25, for which plaintiff claimed $20. On the following day plaintiff wrote a letter to defendant in connection with that.

EMPLOYED AS MANAGER

Referring to the $5.80 for transportation as agreed, Mr. Hodgson said that defendant, after having had an accident, went to the Kowloon Hospital, as a result of which he employed plaintiff as manager for the period September 1 to 29

Besides the salary, defendant was alleged to have promised that he would pay for plaintiff all necessary travelling expenses from the boarding house and restaurant to the Kowloon Hospital from time to time.

Defendant said that there was nothing in writing about the salary, but a verbal promise was made.

Evidence, corroborating Mr. Hodgson' opening, was given by plaintiff who was also questioned by the defendant, after which judgment was entered.

POSSESSION OF ARMS

Tailor Sent To Sessions

Chan Wan-sang, aged 40, tailor, a native of Shanghai, was committed to the Criminal Sessions by Mr. R. A. D. Forrest at the Central Magistracy yesterday on a charge of possession of a revolver and 12 rounds of ammunition at the Yuen On Wharf, Connaught Road West, on January 23.

Detective-Inspector M. Murphy prosecuted and Mr. Hin-Shing Lo, instructed by Mr. J. M. Hall, defended.

Chinese Revenue Officer No. 49 said he was on duty at the Yuen On Wharf on January 23 when the s.s. Chuen Chow came in at about 12 noon. He began searching passengers and when he came to defendant he found something suspicious tied to his leg.

He brought him to a European officer and the man was sent up to N. 7 Police Station When searched there by the inspector on duty a revolver and 12 rounds of ammunition were found on him.

MISSING GIRL FOUND AFTER A YEAR

Happy Reunion With Mother

After being missing for almost a year, a 13-year-old girl, Li Yip-hoi, was found and returned to her mother in December last by the police when a woman, Wong Fung, who was alleged to have been responsible for her disappearance, was arrested.

Committal proceedings were begun against her yesterday at the the Kowloon Magistracy when she appeared before Mr. K. M. A. Barnett on a charge of kidnapping a girl under 14, in December, 1936.

Detective Sergt. MacPherson, who was in charge of the prosecution, said that the girl's mother, Wong Kam, lived in Kowloon City. She worked in a preserved fruit factory, and it was her daily schedule to go to work about 7 o'clock in the morning and return about 5 p.m., leaving her daughter to look after the house during her hours in the factory.

DAUGHTER MISSING

Returning home after work on December 11, 1936, she found that her daughter was missing. As a result of inquiries made, she learned that the girl had been taken away by a woman. After many hours of unsuccessfully combing the vicinity, she reported her daughter's disappearance to the police.

On December 28, 1937, almost a year after her report to the police, she was informed by two women that Wong Fung, whom they suspected of having kidnapping Li Yip-hoi, was seen in Mongkok. She told the police and a Chinese detective was detailed to accompany her to locate Wong Fung, who was eventually found.

Detective Tsu Cheung, in evidence yesterday, said that he accompanied defendant and the mother to Sham Chun to locate the girl. On entering the village Li Yip-hoi spotted their coming and rushed to her mother.

Wong Fung was committed for trial.

CATHOLIC NEWS AND NOTES

THE FRIDAY ABSTINENCE

As the Chinese New Year festival falls on next Monday there is a dispensation from the usual abstinence of the Catholic Church on next Friday and on the Friday of the following week. This abstinence is a matter of Church legislation, and though it is observed very strictly it is readily dispensed whenever there is any particular reason. If any of the important feasts falls upon that day, such as Christmas or any other of the "Holidays of Obligation," the abstinence is automatically suspended. On other occasions it rests with the Bishop of the diocese to decide what the exceptions are to be. In time of sickness, as for instance during the cholera epidemic of last year, a dispensation is very commonly given. Similarly, where special reasons exist, dispensation can be given to individuals or families. One of the causes that most readily excuses from the obligation is poverty, for it is often not within the power of a poor person to select one kind of food rather than another.

ST. JOHN BOSCO

The feast of St. John Bosco, better known still as Don Bosco, falls on the Chinese New Year's Day this year. It is only a few years since Don Bosco, one of the greatest social workers of the last century, was numbered among the saints, and it is in fact only fifty years since his death—Monday will actually be the fiftieth anniversary. St. John Bosco, who is the founder of the Salesian Congregation, was a priest in Turin who combined in himself a special gift for dealing with boys and remarkable organising power. His work for the poor orphan children of Turin was one of the most successful efforts ever made to help boys who were destitute and in danger of falling into evil ways. His control over them was such a personal one that many doubted the possibility of spreading the work to places which he could not himself direct, but he succeeded in a marked degree in imparting the same spirit to others, and the Salesian Congregation is now spread to all parts of the world Its work is seen in Hong Kong in St. Louis' Industrial School and in the Aberdeen Industrial School.

GLYN PHILPOT R. A.

The death of Mr. Glyn Warren Philpot, R. A. removes one of the most original—perhaps some would say one of the few original artists—in the Royal Academy. It was as a portrait painter that he first achieved fame and he was barely forty when he was elected A. R. A. in 1915. He was a Londoner by birth and got his early training in art at the Lambeth School of Art under Philip Connard, R. A. It was when he left the field of portraiture that he exhibited the originality that brought some of his paintings into the category of "problem pictures." His taste for the macabre was evident in much of his work. There was no doubt about the quality of his technical skill and he was equally successful in the delicate style which he adopted later in his career as in the more sweeping manner of his earlier work. When the Guild of Catholic Artists and Craftsmen was founded in 1929 he was its first president. Some of his paintings were religious in subject, and there is a distinct appreciation of religious values in one of his best know works "The Departure of Richard I for the Crusade" which is in St. Stephen's Hall. Many of his portraits hang in the Tate Gallery and in the Imperial War Museum.

THE CATHOLIC STAGE GUILD

Mention of the Catholic Artists' Guild recalls the existence of another "vocational" Catholic organization in Great Britain, the Stage Guild, which is one of the oldest Catholic professional societes in England. The Guild is recruited from members of the theatrical profession of many nationalities, and some who have relinquished active professional work, such as Madame de Navarro (Mary Anderson) give a good deal of their time and interest to it. Among the prominent Catholic stage workers of today can be numbered Sir Seymour Hicks, Ellaline Terriss, Giles Isham, Robert Speaight, Stanley Holloway, Sara Allgood and Anton Dolin-the world famous dancer who in private life bears a well-known Irish name.

In London, in association with the Catholic Stage Guild, though not officially part of it, there is a Club for Catholic actors and actresses, the Interval Club, in Soho, which is a familiar meeting place for Catholic artistes from foreign countries who wish to meet their co-religionists in the profession in England.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON SERMON

SUBJECT: LOVE

The subject of the lesson-sermon in all churches of Christ, Scientist, tomorrow Jan. 30th will be "Love". The Golden Text will be "we have known and believed the love which God hath to us. God is Love; and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him." (I John 4:16).

Among others the following citations will be read from the Bible "Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil, cleave to that which is good. Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love in honour preferring one another. Recompense no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men." (Rom. 12:9.10.17).

The following citations will also be read from the Christian Science Textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eady. "Divine Mind rightly demands man's entire obedience, affection and strength. No reservation is made for any lesser loyalty. Self-love is more opaque than a solid body. In patient obedience to a patient God, let us labour to dissolve with the universal solvent of Love, the adamant of error-self-will, self-justification and self love,—which wars against spirituality and is the law of sin and death." (Pages 183.242).

THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY

Interesting Talk By Mr. Russ

"Creative Understanding" was the title of the lecture given on Thursday by Mr. C.A. Sutherton Russ at the Public Meeting held by the Manuk Lodge of the Theosophical Society in continuation of the Campaign for Understanding

The speaker, in the course of his lecture, said:—

The greatest of the Chinese Mystics "Lao Tsz" had said of "Tao" or the "Way", that those who speak much did not know it, and those who knew it did not speak, and one of our great difficulties in discussing the higher planes was that they so entirely transcended anything we were accustomed to deal with in our waking state, that we have an inadequate vocabulary to describe them, for the soul in its descend into matter, takes an additional sheath on each descending plane, thereby shutting out dimensions one by one, so that we perceive it operating here in only three dimensions, height, width and length, and have great difficulty even in visualising a fourth.

The Universe is the expression by an infinite eternal conciousness of part of himself, operating by means of a decreasingly rapid series of vibrations, the more rapid

BETTER VALUE THAN EVER

The Gillette No. 77 Set illustrated here, which contains the latest Gillette razor, three Blue Gillette slotted blades and two blade holders in a new type of moulded box, has these definite advantages.

The razor is made in two pieces instead of three, as formerly, thus making it easier and quicker to clean, assemble and use.

The blades are made by the new electrical-tempering process. They give not only closer, cleaner shaves than you have ever had before, but also more shaves per blade.

The case is ideal for hot and humid climates as it is so easy to keep clean.

Ask your dealer to show you a No. 77 Set—one of the most popular that Gillette have ever made.

THE "ROMAN STEP"

Rome, Jan. 28

Goose-stepping Fascists is the newest Italian innovation, Signor Mussoloni having been present on Thursday at a demonstration by the Fascist Militia of the new "Passo Romana," the "Roman Step" which is to be used in future for all important parades and reviews.

Similar to the famous German "Goose Step," the new marching step is executed by holding the knees stiff, lifting the feet high and bringing the heels down firmly. Il Duce was obviously highly pleased with the demonstration.—(Trans-Ocean).

CONGRESS MESSAGE DELAYED

Washington, Jan. 27.

President Roosevelt's message to Congress on naval expansion will be delayed until Friday, according to Senator Bankhead, speaker of the House of Representatives.

The reason is that the house is adjourning as a mark of respect for Representative E. A. Kenney, who fell to his death in the night from the sixth floor of the bedroom window of a Hotel Here.—(Reuter).

AMERICAN WAS "INSOLENT"

Japan Explains Assault

Shanghai, Jan. 28.

In connection with the incident in which Mr. J. B. Allison, Third Secretary of the United States Embassy at Nanking, was assaulted yesterday by a Japanese sentry, the Japanese army spokesman stated tonight that Allison was slapped in the face by the sentry when he failed to comply with repeated requests to leave the grounds of a Chinese house which was occupied by Japanese soldiers.

Allison visited the premises with Japanese gendarmes in order to conduct an investigation. Another American, whose identity is not disclosed, was also hit by the sentry.

Subsequently the Japanese authorities apologised to Allison. The spokesman added the case arose from the insolent attitude adopted by Allison who sought to deal with Japanese soldiers as a policeman would deal with a lawbreaker.

"It must also be attributed to Allison's attitude which is characterised by his outspoken criticism of the Japanese army. The incident, however, is regrettable and steps have been taken to prevent a recurrence." said the spokesman.—(Reuter).

SOVIET AND LEAGUE

Geneva, Jan. 28.

The principal feature of the initial meeting of the 100th session of the League Council, which opened here on Thursday afternoon, was the declaration by the Soviet Foreign Commissar, M. Maxim Litvinoff, who utilised the opportunity for a violent attack on certain countries which he did not name.

The League, he declared, stood in opposition to an ideolgical bloc which had war as its principal. The League had only one ideology, and that was peace, so that when the war bloc became active, the peace bloc had no alternative but to reciprocate through equal activity.

M. Litvinoff emphasised Moscow's loyalty to the League, declaring that although in the beginning his government was not a member of the League family, it was now one of the most devoted. That was because Moscow required years to convince herself that the League was an instrument of peace, but having become convinced the Soviet Union had ever since fulfilled all her obligations in the spirit of the League.

The Soviet military machine had been developed and perfected as an instrument of peace, M. Litvinoff concluded. (Trans-Ocean).

Stillness took possession of the hall when Dr. Wellington Koo rose to address the meeting and pronounced the greatest indictment the League of Nations had ever heard in Geneva.

Dr. Koo declared that the festive air of that 100th session of the League of Nations Council stood in striking contrast to all the failures of the past.

"We are in the midst of a war of ideologies but instead of the League taking the trouble to solve the problems as they arise, basing the measures taken on the factors of justice, peace and security, the League of Nations has become more and more a passive observer," said Dr. Koo. (Trans-Ocean).

LEAGUE IGNORED

Rome, Jan. 28.

Evidently respecting the repeated declarations of Italian political circles that the happenings in Geneva were a matter of complete indifference to Italy, the entire Press of Italy has completely ignored the proceedings of Thursday, not a single paper even mentioning the fact that the League Council began its 100th session. (Trans-Ocean).

NEW U.S. SOLICITOR-GENERAL

London, Jan. 28.

Wing Commander Kerby, The British Air Attache in Shanghai, will leave for Shanghai to resume duties after a short visit to London.—(Reuter).

President Roosevelt has appointed Mr. Robert H. Jackson, Solicitor-General of the United States in succession to Mr. Stanley Reed.

Mr. Jackson is a Democrat, aged forty-six and has been assistant Attorney General.—(Reuter).

THE PERFECT SPECIMEN

Errol Flynn, handsome young Irish actor, comes to the Queen's Theatre today in a modern American comedy-drama called "The Perfect Specimen."

The story deals with an eccentric old lady possessed of many millions who has an ambition to see her grandson raised as an altogether perfect young man, and who for that reason supplies him with an abundance of tutors but keeps him confined to the limits of the family's vast estate.

A young villager—Joan Blondell—manages to break into the virtual prison and meet the young man. She succeeds in getting him outside of his bounds, and he begins to understand and love the world without.

That gives you a general idea of the possibilities of the story.

Others in the cast of today's local showing include May Robson, Hugh Herbert, Edward Everett Horton, Allen Jenkins, Beverly Roberts, Dick Foran and Dennie Moore.

AT THE KING'S

Hollywood pays its respects to Broadway.

With a name-cast of Broadway stars, augmented by Robert Taylor of the screen, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Broadway Melody of 1938" opens at the King's Theatre to-day to be welcomed with spontaneous applause.

Here, unquestionably, is the new order of things in the world of show business. On sound stages themselves larger than the greatest Broadway theatre, the picture has been furnished with a lavish splendour that could never be approached elsewhere.

A DAMSEL IN DISTRESS

A novel romantic chase, starting in a London taxicab, going into second gear at a medieval castle, and shifting into high at a village fair, follows a hectic course in Fred Astaire's RKO Radio vehicle, "A Damsel in Distress" which opens at the Alhambra Theatre to-morrow.

The dancing star is cast as a celebrated American dancer who, tired of a reputation as a great lover, inspired by his ambitious but conscienceless press agents, George Burns and Grace Allen, decides to retire to the country outside London, where he hopes to find peace.

But fate double-crosses him when he meets a beautiful English girl, Joan Fontaine, whose aunt is trying to force her into marrying a saxophone-tooting fop. Astaire "rushes" her in good old American custom, although the unhappy girl is held prisoner in the ancestral castle.

"A Damsel in Distress" is a Pandro S. Berman production directed by George Stevens.

Fun-House Fun

Fred Astaire proves himself a consistent cutter-upper at an English amusement park in his "A Damsel in Distress." He rides through a fun house on a swan device in hot pursuit of Joan Fontaine, who drives one of the contraptions, but not so expertly. This picture is the Chinese New Year Attraction at the Alhambra Theatre opening on Jan. 30th together with "Donald Duck" in "Donald's Ostrich".

DOUBLE ATTRACTION

For nine years Carmen LaRoux has filled the inconspicuous post of stand-in for Dolores Del Rio, but establishment of motion picture studios in nearby Tia Juana, Mexico, is likely to prove to be Carmen's open-sesame to fame and fortune.

Following news that "Estudios Imperio Azteca, S.A.," with a half-million dollar subsidy by the Mexican Government, is starting construction of a sound-stage studio in Lower California, came word that the pretty actress-stand-in has been made tentative offers to appear in films of her native land.

Recently engaged as Dolores Del Rio's stand-in in the latter's Columbia picture, "Devil's Playground," now at the Majestic Theatre, with Chester Morris and Richard Dix, Carmen may leave Hollywood soon to become a star in her own right, featured by the new-born Mexican studios.

The "Midnight Follies" are appearing on the stage.

Three of Hollywood's brilliant lights are co-starred in RKO Radio's "A Damsel in Distress." Fred Astaire contributes his whirlwind terpsichore and Burns and Allen offer their smart chatter in this romantic musical comedy scored by P.G. Wodehouse. Joah Fontaine heads the featured cast in the title role. This picture opens at the Alhambra Theatre on Sunday 30th, January.

NEW STYLE DANCING

At The Gloucester

Dancing of a type new to Hong Kong will be seen by guests at the Gloucester Hotel tonight when the Brymans Trio, well-known Continental dancers, will stage a special floor show programme in connection with the Chinese New Year celebrations.

The trio—Clara, Madlaine and Victor—recently arrived from Europe, where they have been appearing at the Paris Exposition. On the journey out they danced before King Farouk, of Egypt.

Tonight there will be a complete change of programme and the dances will include the Bolero, Revolution and Mondaine Bleu.

The Bolero is the dance performed by George Raft and Carole Lombard in the picture of that name. Revolution is based on episodes in the French Revolution, while Mondaine Bleu is typical of the latest style of dancing in Europe.

From Hong Kong the Brymans Trio will go to Manila.

LETTERS HOME HELP GERMAN CHANGE OF FRONT

(By Air Mail)

Hankow, Jan. 25.

Chinese private, as well as official, circles are pleased at the change of mind noticeable in the German Press of late.

Germany seems to realise that if Japan manages to turn China into a vassal state, she will, as far as trade is concerned, find that the open door will only be open to Japanese.

Local Germans openly agree that the "Daily Herald" is right, when stating with reference to Japanese honour, that the market value of this "commodity" declines rapidly.

There is no doubt that the German change of front is largely due to the hundreds of letters continually reaching businessmen in Germany from their countrymen in China.—(Our Special Correspondent).

TRAINEES DRILLING AT HANKOW

(By Air Mail)

Hankow, Jan. 25.

China is as determined as ever to carry on her fight for existence and the military advisers here are busy training the new armies.

Local residents are wondering if Japan dares send more troops into China now that Russia seems to be mobilizing her forces in Eastern Siberia.—(Our Special Correspondent).

On Wednesday, February 2, His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffry Northcote, will be present at the annual dinner and ball of the St. John Ambulance Association and Brigade, at the Hong Kong Hotel.

NO DESIGNS ON HAINAN

Japan Explains Recent Landing

Tokyo, Jan. 28.

Japanese action in respect of Hainan Island, it was stated by the official spokesman of the Navy Ministry, was naturally limited by treaties affecting the area.

He declared the Japanese naval party visited Yulin to inspect Chinese junks suspected of smuggling war supplies. The Japanese Navy had no intention of landing forces at Yulin or elsewhere on the island nor had it attempted this.

The spokesman added that aerial reconnaissance showed the island to be strongly fortified.

AMBASSADOR SATISFIED

Tokyo, Jan. 28.

In connexion with the recent Japanese naval activities in Hainan, the spokesman of the Navy Ministry declared the actions of the Japanese navy were naturally limited by treaties affecting that area.

The visit of the Japanese naval party to Yulin on Jan. 19, had formed the subject of conversations lately between the French Ambassador and the Vice-Minister for Foreign Affairs. It is understood the French Ambassador expressed apprehension regarding the security of Hainan.

Giving an explanation, the Vice-Minister said the visit of the Japanese naval party was for the purpose of ensuring effective interruption of Chinese maritime traffic and for no other purpose.

The Ambassador, it is stated, expressed satisfaction with the explanation.—(Reuter).

DEAD DUMPED ON ROADS

Bodies All Over Settlement

Shanghai, Jan. 28.

The number of abandoned bodies of dead Chinese in Shanghai increases by leaps and bounds. Many are daily picked up by the Public Health Department. Bodies are being dumped in the streets, alleyways, vacant grounds, compounds and gardens by those connected with the deceased.

Although, normally, several hundred corpses are abandoned each month within Settlement limits, the number is now out of all proportion. Fortunately, owing to the cold weather, they are not presenting a serious health problem.

The dead are refugees, beggars and poor people generally. A large proportion are children—victims of measles, dysentery and other infectious diseases. Most of the dead are discovered in a decomposed state.—(Reuter).

Chinese Government Meeting Loan Obligations

Shanghai, Jan. 28.

The Chinese Government is meeting the half-yearly service of the Consolidated Domestic Loan commencing on January 29, totalling $51,175,000.

Principle and interest payment will be made in Welwah (transfer money), which is at present easily cashable in the market at a small discount.—(Reuter)

ACTS OF SAVAGERY ARE NOW TO BE PUNISHED

Shanghai, Jan. 28.

Threatening to punish all infractions "without mercy," Japanese military, naval and diplomatic authorities today appealed to Japanese nationals to take no action tending to "besmirch the good name of Japan and her armed forces."

Recounting the various crimes committed by Japanese civilians masquerading as military, civilian officials, or even as newspapermen, the statement emphasises that these offensive actions tended to defeat the objectives of Japan's national policy in China. It is stated that these activities were "arousing the enmity of the Chinese. Such actions on the part of a few Japanese react unfavourably on Japan's good name, hamper the peaceful and legal activities of Japanese residents here and tend to defeat the great objective of the Japanese expeditionary force."

The declaration emphasises that this goal is the overthrow of the former Nanking Government. It is added that the Japanese army desires to assure the Chinese people as a whole of peace and not to regard it as China's enemy. —(Reuter).

Japan's Five Thousand Million Yen War Budget

Tokyo, Jan. 28.

The Japanese Navy's "China Incident" supplementary budget for the coming financial year has not yet been fixed, according to a spokesman of the Navy Ministry.

He declined to comfirm the forecast of the "Hochi Schimbun" that the budget total would be Y.1,500,000,000 which, with the army's budget, reported to be fixed at Y.3,500,000,000, made the extraordinary "China Incident" budget total Y5,000,000,000.

Since the hostilities started last July, Japan has appropriated approximately Y2,500,000,000 for military operations, and the amount will be exhausted by the end of the financial year which is March 31, according to the "Yomiuri Shimbun."

The new appropriations apparently cover the whole of the military and naval operations for the coming financial year, and will be based on exceptional warfare over a long period.—Reuter.

BRITISH CARS FOR THE WORLD

Naturally, manufacturers of the larger and more expensive cars, such as the Rolls-Royce and Bentley, find that conditions abroad are of ever-increasing difficulty, as high tariffs place high-priced cars out of the reach of many who would like to own them (says "The Autocar)."

Nevertheless, the 1937 export figures for Bentley and Rolls-Royce show an increase of just over 10 per cent. over 1936, and cars have been exported to 23 countries, including U.S.A., Canada, the Argentine, Cuba, Bolivia, Brazil and Siam.

His Majesty has further approved the following appointments, which are consequential on the changes in the higher posts of the Army which were recently announced:—

Major-General the Hon. H. R. L. G. Alexander, C.S.I., D.S.I., D.S.O., M.C., Colonel, 3/2 Punjab Regiment, to be Commander of the 1st Division, with effect from February 18, in succession to Lieutenant-General C. C. Johnson V.C., D.S.O., M.C., A.D.C., to be Commander of the 4th Division, with the temporary rank of major-general, with effect from January 7, in succession to Lieutenant-General C. G. Liddell, C.B., C.M.G., C.B.E., D.S.O., who has been appointed Adjutant-General to the Forces.

Colonel (temporary Brigadier) B. C. T. Paget, D.S.O., M.C., to be Commandant, Staff College, Camberley, with the temporary rank of major-general, in succession to Lieutenant-General Sir Ronald Adam, D.S.O., O.B.E., as already announced, has been appointed Deputy Chief of the Imperial General Staff. The appointment is at present vacant.

Colonel (temorary Brigadier) H. R. Pownall, C.B., D.S.O., M.C., to be Director of Military Operations and Intelligence, the War Office, with the temporary rank of major-general, with effect from March next, in succession to Major-General R. H. Haining, C.B., D.S.O., who, as already announced, has been selected as General Officer Commanding the British Forces in Palestine and Transjordan.

Colonel T. R. Eastwood, D.S.O., M.C., to be Commandant, Royal Military College, Sandhurst, with the temporary rank of major-general, with effect from January 12, in place of Lieutenant-General W. D. S. Brownrigg, C.B., D.S.O., who was originaly selected for this appointment, but who, as already announced, has been appointed Military Secretary to the Secretary of State for War.

Colonel (temporary Brigadier) F. Neame, V.C., D.S.O., to be Commandant, Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, with the temporary rank of major-general, with effect from February 28, in succession to Major-Geeral A. A. Goschen, C.B., D.S.O., who is completing his tenure appointment.

BELOW AVERAGE AGE

The "Times" Military Correspondent writes:—

The list of high appointments here anounced is likely to be received, on the whole, with much satisfaction in the Army. It may be a cause of some regret that no distinctive mechanized experience is represented in this important series of appointments. But it will be a source of encouragement that all but one of the officers appointed to Major-generals's posts have been picked out from the colonels' list. This will bring down the average age considerably, the youngest of all being the recently promoted Major-General Alexander, who becomes a divisional commander at the early age of 46. Even the oldest, Brigadier Johnson, V.C., who will be not quite 54 when he takes over the 4th Division, is below the average age of the present divisional commanders. It is noteworthy that he is not a Staff College graduate, and this should be taken as a sign that the higher commands of the Army are not to become an exclusive preserve for those who carry the "p.s.c." hallmark.

Brigadier Pownall, at present Commandant of the School of Artillery, who has only just turned 50, is picked out from well down the colonels' list to fill the key post of Director of Military Operations and Intelligence at the War Office. Here his comparatively recent experience first as Assistant Secretary and then as Deputy Secretary of the Committee of Imperial Defence will be a great asset. It ensures a combined Service outlook where it is most required.

MILITARY EDUCATION

Brigadier Paget, who becomes Commandant of the Staff College at the same age, has also been in close touch with the other Services as well as with Imperial problems as G.S.O.1. in the Intelligence Branch of the War Office from 1934 until early in 1937, when he appointed to command an infantry brigade on the Indian frontier. He is particularly well versed in Near and Middle East affairs

Not the least significant of the appointments is that of Colonel Eastwood, the present G.S.O.1 of the 2nd Division, to be Commandant of the Royal Military College, Sandurst, at the early age of 47. It promises to be a particularly happy choice; one that should do much to develop recent progress towards a broadening of military education and a modernization of the atmosphere in which it is conducted.

As the new head of the other great educational establishment for future officers, the Royal Military Academy, Woolwich, is appointed Brigadier Neame, who is only two years older. He will make the fourth major-general still in the forties and the third V.C. among those who have recently been advanced to high positions. His instructional powers were shown when he was a teacher at the Staff College after the War, and also in a book on "Games Strategy in the Great War" which he produced from his lectures there. He is a famous rifle and big-game shot; some years ago, while serving in India, he was severely mauled by a tiger.

BAD CHEQUE ALLEGED

Lawyers Exchange Passages

"I AM CONDUCTING THIS DEFENCE"

Further passages were exchanged between Mr. J. M. D'Almada Remedios and Mr. M. A. da Silva at the Central Magistracy yesterday, during the continuation of the hearing before Mr. R. Edwards, of the case in which Lam Sam, manager of the Shee Cheong Company, is charged with obtaining goods by giving a cheque which was later dishonoured.

There is also an alternative charge against Lam of obtaining credit by false pretences.

It is being alleged that he obtained silk stockings to the value of $1,377 from Mr. B. Murjani, manager of the Britannia Silk Store, China Building, by giving him a bad cheque.

Mr. Silva is prosecuting and Mr. Remedios represents Lam. Detective-Sergeant A. Soutar was present for the police.

Cross-examined yesterday, complainant admitted that in every transaction he had had with defendant the latter had told him he had no money in the bank and would have to deliver the goods before he could pay him. The cheques he gave had been post-dated and had been honoured.

During this lengthy cross-examination, Mr. Remedios several times spoke sharply to witness and told him he was not in the witness-box to make suggestions but to answer questions.

OBJECTION RAISED

After a while, Mr. Silva said: I have been conducting many cases in court and I have conducted them in a much more congenial atmosphere. I do not mind the manner in which the defence is being conducted but I strenuously object to my client being cut off short in his answers.

Mr. Remedios: I am conducting this defence. My question is a simple one and I shall ask what I like.

Mr. Remedios put it to witness that he had given the defendant the goods on December 29; that there was no question of his mistrusting him, and that he did not ask for cash for the goods. All this witness denied.

DOCUMENT PRODUCED

Mr. Remedios then handed a document dated December 29 which, he claimed, showed that the goods had been bought on that date. This, witness said, was due to a mistake in writing on the part of an assistant.

Before asking for an adjournment, Mr. Silva said he was giving Mr. Remedios notice now that at the next hearing he would produce evidence of various similar frauds on the part of defendant, showing system.

He said he would, if necessary, be fully ready with authorities to show he could adduce such evidence.

Mr. Remedios said if there was any objection he would also be supplied with authorities in support of his objections.

His Worship then set aside the afternoon of February 3 and 14 for the next hearings. Bail was reduced to $1,000

FLOGGING ESCAPED BY AGE

With a conviction against him dating as far back as 1909, Ho Pung, aged 47, appeared before Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Magistracy yesterday charged, with larceny of a purse containing $3 (Hong Kong money) and $24.40 (Chinese) on board the ss. Tung On, at Tung On Wharf on Thursday. Complainant was Chan Yee, 38, widow.

Defendant, who also had convictions in 1913 and 1931, and described himself as a Chinese doctor, was given four months' hard labour. His Worship remarking that but for his advanced age he would consider ordering a flogging. Sub-Inspector Poyntz prosecuted.

JAPAN AND AMERICA

General opinion in Japan until recently has been that the boycott of Japanese goods in America has been restricted to the labour unions and the collarless classes. That was until Mr. Takaishi, one of the Peoples' Envoys to visit the United States, stated in a message to the newspaper "Mainichi" that when American merchants were unfortunate enough to have it disclosed that they profited from trade with Japan they found themselves socially ostracised.

From this it will be seen that there are really two boycotts being supported by Americans. The first involves refusal to buy Japanese goods; the second, "black-listing" of anyone who deals in the products of this country.

And yet, in the face of this, there are any number of Japanese who would have the world believe that the American people sympathise so deeply with Japan and her "sacred caused" that they are merely waiting to be asked to given financial assistance and they will loosen their purse strings.

However, Mr. Takaishi tells something of the real situation, and in doing so remarks, "I am afraid my words will not prove agreeable to some of my countrymen."

For his frankness we feel that Mr. Takaishi will not be very popular when he returns to his native land, for one of the lessons we have learned from the Sino-Japanese conflict is that the Japanese have a marked aversion to hearing plain facts when they are at all unpalatable.

Evidently Mr. Takaishi belongs to that section of the population of Japan which feels that the time has come to face the real situation, for he points out that under the circumstances there is no possibility at all of an American loan to Japan.

A bitter pill to swallow, no doubt, but this plain-speaking gentleman hit the nail squarely on the head.

Not content with thus disturbing the equilibrium of the millions of his countrymen who had taken for granted an American loan, he adds that even if Japan emerged victorious from the war it would be difficult for her to consolidate her position under increasing pressure upon her trade.

Examining the position more closely it becomes apparent that despite all that the propagandists have to say, there is a certain amount of anxiety in Japan over the attitude of the United States.

As an instance, the Economic Federation in Kobe recently called a meeting of the American-Japanese Trade Council to discuss the promotion of trade between the two countries.

It was subsequently learned that one of the main points of the discussion was to seek a way to improve the existing method of control of foreign exchange, and when the talks drifted to the growth of anti-Japanese feeling in America, it was agreed that it was best for Japan to make the cause of the present China incident clearer.

World opinion being what it is in regard to the present hostilities it would be useless on the part of any Japanese institution, official or otherwise, to try and make things "clearer."

The world in general knows that China is determined not to accept peace terms unless and until every Japanese soldier is withdrawn from her soil and every inch of captured territory is returned to her unconditionally. This war was not of China's asking.

Japan has lost all face and no amount of explaining will convince the world that she has ever had the slightest justification in starting this undeclared war. Those in responsible positions in that unhappy country are faced with a situation that is as alarming as it is undesirable.

The day appears to be fast drawing near when a good deal of explaining will have to be made to the Japanese people themselves. That the militarists will ever be able to justify their actions is exceedingly doubtful.

HOCKEY DANCE SUCCESS

H.K. Ladies Club Function

MANY LOVELY GOWNS

(BY "PRUDENCE")

The annual dance given by the Hong Kong Ladies' Hockey Club is one of the social events of the winter, and that held last night in the Rose Room of the Peninsula Hotel was no exception to the rule.

Keen hockey players and hockey fans were there in full force, and many were the parties given by members of the Club. Lamp-lit tables fringed the dance floor, and among the hostesses of the evening I noticed the Captain Mrs. Lunson, Mrs. J. A. R. Selby, Mrs. Locke, Mrs. P. M. Harrop, Mrs. E. W. Loveless and Miss E. M. Gray.

Joint parties were given by Miss Vivienne Blackburn and Miss Betty Helbling, Miss Sheila Baskett and Miss Gordon-Smith, Miss S. and Miss P. Reeves, Miss Marsh and Miss Abraham, and Miss Joan and Miss Mary Smalley. Others who brought parties were Miss G. Swan, Miss J. Dalziel, Mrs. Waddell, Mrs. J. H. Davis, Miss Fardell, Miss M. Rattey, Miss E. Tesartey, and Mrs. D. L. Prophet.

Lovely Gowns

Many lovely gowns were worn last night, and among them we observed Mrs. "Tam" Pearce (The President) who looked charming in black, with a graceful little cape of black sequins. Mrs. Lunson (Captain of the Hockey team) wore damask-red with a silver coat, and had a table for fourteen. Miss Vivienne Blackburn had another very big party, among them Mrs. Lollie Goldman in amber satin and looked remarkably pretty in jade green taffeta, with a coatee to match.

Miss Tesartey was graceful in silver lame, and had a party which included Mrs. Cyril Champkin, in a slenderly-fitting gown of palest pink lace.

Mrs. Baskett in black brought her daughter Sheila in a very dainty dress of blue chiffon powdered with flowers.

Miss Betty Abraham wore an unusual dress of deep green, with a skirt banded with very pale gold. Miss Dorothy Crawshaw wore pale peach shadow lace, and Miss Mavis Glendinning wore shell-pink with a dainty iridescent coatee.

Mrs. Stan Hill was very charming in tourquoise satin, and Mrs. Locke chose midnight-blue circe satin.

Midnight-Blue

Mrs. Cooper looked distinguished in black, and was with her daughter Mrs. Loveless, who was very elegant in white lacquered satin. With her party was Hong Kong's latest bride, Mrs. Barry Parks who looked radiant in black chiffon-velvet.

Yet another notable dress of black with a white top was worn by Miss Raven. There was, alas, no visiting Shanghai Team this year, and we missed them. Let us hope that next year when affairs up North are settled that they will be with us once again.

Miss Mary Smalley (in a lovely shade deep wine red) came with a gay party which included Mrs. James Witham.

Times and the Press wait for no man, and people were still arriving when we decided it was time to go.

FINANCE COMMITTEE MEETING

Supplementary Votes Totalling $164,018

TO BE CONSIDERED NEXT WEEK

Supplementary votes totalling $164,018 will be considered by the Finance Committee at the conclusion of the Legislative Council meeting to be held on Wednesday, February 2, at 2.30 p.m.

The memoranda explaining the items is as follows:—

ESTIMATES, 1937.

Hong Kong Naval Volunteer Force: Upkeep of Ship and Boats, $652; Fuel, Light and Water, $234.

Prisons Department: Incidental Expenses, $250; Clothing and shoes for staff, $1,150; Clothing for prisoners, $1,200.

Police Force: Coal and Gas, $506; Expenses of Anti-piracy Guards, $1,535 (more guards were employed in 1937 than in 1936 and the provision of $20,000 has proved insufficient).

STATION BARRICADES

Public Works Extraordinary: New Territories. Barbed wire barricades at Sheung Shui, Au Tau and Ping Shan Police Stations, $1,330.

Kowloon-Canton Railway: Typhoon Damage (2.9.37), $81,200.

Prisons Department: Fuel, $900.

ESTIMATES, 1938

Air Services: Control Launch for Kai Tak Air Port, $3,500. A high speed control launch is required for the Airport and could be built more cheaply locally than elsewhere. To obtain the speed required a hull of special design must be provided and, in order to obtain the most suitable form, it is necessary to test the proposed design in the experimental tank at the National Physical Laboratory, Teddington.

The cost of these experiments is estimated to be $3,500, approval for the expenditure of which is now sought).

Air Service: Construction of Marine Terminal, $9,000. The building erected by the Pan American Airways at Kai Tak which served as Marine Terminal for the handling of luggage, mails, tickets, etc., was destroyed in the typhoon of 1937. Provision for these offices will ultimately be included in the Administration building when erected but in the meanwhile it is considered essential that a temporary timber building should be constructed for the use of all Air Companies. No provision has been made in 1938 Estimates and a supplementary vote is requested accordingly).

Kowloon-Canton Railway: Reconditioning of two Class B Locomotive Boilers, $2,200.

Police Force: Police Van, $4,200.

Public Works Extraordinary: Taipo Road, 3rd-5th Mile Improvements, $5,484.

LIGHTHOUSE RELIEFS

In consequence of the stranding of the Government rescue tug Kau Sing during the typhoon of Sept. 2, 1937, it will be necessary to hire tugs for the relief of Lighthouses at Gap Rock and Waglan during the year 1938. The cost of such hire is $1,000 for the round trip.

Grants in aid of Institutions. British Empire Leprosy Relief Association, $814. (In response to an appeal supported by the Secretary of State but received too late for inclusion in Estimates for 1938 it is proposed to make an annual grant of £50 to the British Empire Leprosy Relief Association. No provision for this has been made in 1938 Estimates and a supplementary vote for $814 is therefore requested. Several other colonies contribute this amount annually).

Fire Brigade: Fire Hydrants Service, G.P.O. Building, $4,565.

FORGED NOTES ALLEGATION

Story Of Two Visits To Shop

Alleged to have uttered two forged one dollar notes of the Hong Kong Government Treasury and being in possession of the same, on two consecutive days, Ng On, appeared on remand before Mr. K. M. A. Barnett at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday, on four charges.

Mr. M. W. Lo appeared for the defence.

It was alleged that Ng On, on January 13, went to the Homuntin store, in Argyle Street, to purchase a packet of cigarettes. He tendered a dollar note to the store attendant, the 11-year-old grand-daughter of the keeper, Wong Lin-sau, who accepted it without questioning its genuineness, and gave the defendant the change of 90 cents. When the note was handed to Wong, he suspected it to be a forgery, and placed it in a special box.

On the following day, it was stated that defendant again went to the store to purchase another packet of cigarettes. He again tendered a dollar note, but this time to Wong Lin-sau himself, who was at the counter. On close examination of the note, Wong discovered that it was also a forgery. He detained and handed defendant over to the police.

Sergt. J. G. Whitcroft, attached to the Government Treasury, yesterday testified that the notes were forgeries.

The case was adjourned until February 9.

U.S. DIPLOMAT "COULD HAVE BEEN SHOT"

Sentry Was Doing His Duty, Says Japanese Spokesman

MR. ALLISON ALLEGED TO HAVE CALLED POLICEMAN "IMBECILE"

Shanghai, Jan. 28.

In a statement today a Japanese Army spokesman declared that Mr. John B. Allison, Third Secretary of the United States Embassy, was accompanied by an American, Mr. Charles Riggs, of Nanking University and Japanese gendarmes, investigating the alleged rape of a Chinese women in American property, and entered the grounds of a Chinese building which is being used as barracks for the Japanese.

Mr. Allison and Mr. Riggs were both struck in the face when they refused to leave.

Asked if the sentry responsible would be punished the Japanese spokesman replied that he was only doing his duty and added that anyone disobeying a Japanese sentry was liable not only to be slapped but also to be shot. He said that Mr. Allison "could have been shot."

Asked why the Japanese commander apologised if the sentry was in the right, the spokesman replied that this was "a gesture of courtesy."

The spokesman said that the Japanese military authorities took a serious view of the case on January 25 when Mr. Allison shook his fist and called a Japanese military policeman "imbecile," when he tried to board the diplomat's car as escort.

The spokesman stated that this was only one example of Mr. Allison's "insolent attitude."

TO INVESTIGATE CONDITIONS

Two senior Japanese officers are flying to Nanking from Tokyo to investigate conditions. One of them is Major-General Homma, former Military Attache in London, who was a member of Prince Chichibu's staff during the visit of Prince and Princess Chichibu to Europe last year.—(Reuter).

NO COMMENT YET

Washington, Jan. 28.

The State Department has declined to comment on the assault on Allison until the official report of the matter has been received from Allison himself.

Except the Hearst papers, the American Press gives the incident comparatively little attention.—(Reuter).

STOPPAGE OF PARCEL POST BY SOVIET

Official Information Lacking

Tokyo, Jan. 28.

A Foreign Office spokesman declared that the Foreign Office had no official information regarding the stoppage of the parcel post by the Soviet authorities though it is understood that the Soviet authorities had communicated with the Japanese Ministry for Communications in this connection.

The spokesman declared that the Soviet plane incident on December 19, was mainly between Manchukuo and the Soviet. He said that in any case it was most difficult to deal with the Soviet for it "needs patience to deal with hysterical girls," and in any case the postal issue was of no great importance.

LADYBIRD INCIDENT

Continuing the spokesman said that he had no information regarding the Allison incident at Nanking on January 26, and declared that he had no intention at present to publish the full text of the U.S.S. Ambassador's protest of January 17, "which may be answered soon."

The spokesman concluded that the Ladybird incident had been cleared up.—(Reuter).

NAVAL RACE IS NOW IN PROGRESS

Japanese Navy And Foreign Press Reports

Tokyo, January 28.

Commenting on the naval race which is apparently on, the "Yomiuri Shimbun" says that the Japanese navy had denied the foreign press reports that Japan was building a superdreadnought. Nonetheless, Britain and America were apparently pushing the scheme of constructing superdreadnoughts against the phantom boat which they imagined Japan was building.

The "Yomiuri Shimbun" suspects that the case was possibly the reverse and that Britain and America had already decided to construct superdreadnoughts and blame Japan for the new situation simply because she had seceded the naval treaties.

Incidentally widespread interest attaches to the pronouncement of the Navy Ministry yesterday on the budgetary debate in the House of Representatives in which Mr. Yonai said that "if a third power or powers should carry out a great naval expansion in the near future, the Japanese navy cannot yield and therefore will build vigorously."—(Reuter).

300-YEAR-OLD VILLAGE TO BE RECONSTRUCTED

Beauty Spot Of The Cotswolds

The interesting experiment of reconstructing the whole of a 300-year-old Cotswold village without losing anything of its ancient charm is to be undertaken shortly.

The village is Cornwell, which lies between Chipping Norton and Stow-in the-Wold, and is one of the most picturesque spots in the Cotswold district. Plans for its reconstruction have been passed by the local authorities concerned and the work will be started at once.

Cornwell stands on land recentry bought by Mr. Anthony Gillson, who, after seeing the condition of some of the cottages, decided not to pull them down, but to demonstrate that the beauty of old English cottage architecture is not incompatible with modern standards of hygiene and comfort.

It is hoped that when the work is completed it will have been shown that a great deal of the destruction of old cottages at present going on is unnecessary.

The delicate task of making a modern "ideal home" within a sixteenth century framework is being done by Mr. Clough Williams-Ellis, the architect, who has interested himself in measures for the protection of the countryside.

He proposes to give Cornwell a main drainage system and a water supply laid on in every cottage—two innovations which are considered by the villagers to constitute a beneficent revolution.

ELECTRIC LIGHT AND RADIO

In addition, every cottage will have electric light and wall plugs for wireless. Stairways will be made more convenient, windows will where necessary, be enlarged, and damp walls will be remedied.

Gardens are to be laid out, allotments will be available for the villagers and a disused school is to be turned into a village hall. Yet when all these improvements have been completed Cornwell will retain all its outwardly picturesque and ancient aspect.

Much of the work is being done under the Housing (Rural Workers) Act, by which grants up to £100 can be obtained for reconstructing country cottages.

The people of Cornwell will live in their redesigned homes for rents which will not exceed 5s a week.

SOVIET AIRMAN ABOARD CHINESE BOMBER

Japanese Spokesman Shows Evidence

Shanghai, Jan. 28.

A Japanese naval spokesman today showed Press correspondents evidence purporting to prove that a Soviet airman was aboard a Chinese bomber brought down in Nanking on January 26. This evidence consisted of a pistol bearing an inscription in Russian, "made in Russia," also a document given to the airman by the Chinese authorities bearing a Chinese flag and number 519.

The spokesman produced what was a piece of a parachute burnt at the edges which bore in Russian the following inscription. "Serial No. 1. U.S.S.R. parachute factory No. 7. Type No. 4. No. 72816. September 8, 1936."

The spokesman had nothing to announce while the army spokesman described minor clashes westward of the Chuhsien and Mingkwang section of the Tientsin-Pukow Railway.—(Reuter).

STOLE LETTER

Then Changed Contents

Chan Wing, 34, unemployed, was sentenced to 12 months' imprisonment by Mr. H. R. Butters at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday, when he was convicted on a charge of theft of a letter from a letter box at No. 386, Laichikok Road, on January 16, and two counts of demanding money on forged documents.

It was alleged that defendant, stole a letter from the letter box and put it back again the following day, after having altered the contents to request the adressee to pay a sum of $25 to a messenger, who would be calling with medicine. The adressee's friend, Leung Sui-kwai, suspected the tone of the letter, and when defendant came in the afternoon, detained him and called for the police.

On hearing of defendant's arrest, Leung Suk-wan, of No. 91, Prince Edward Road, reported to the police that he had given a messenger $15 on December 7, when he came to deliver a quantity of pills, purportnig to have been ordered by his sister-in-law through a doctor.

INDIA TO MEET CHINA "B"

International Softball Series

(BY "F. MELA")

A very fine softball match is promised on Monday morning when India meets China "B" in the International Competition. Both teams will be at full strength and when I saw them at practice on the Indian Recreation Club ground last evening, the Indian aggregation expressed their confidence in being able to win their way into the next round.

The Indian team includes K. Nazarin, A. R. Abbas, M. el Arculli and A. R. Kitchell, four of the Indian R. C. first eleven cricketers while A. J. Hussain, who played for the Hong Kong Football Association in the Governor's Cup match against the Hong Kong Chinese Amateur Athletic Federation team, will also be turning out for the Indians. Other members of the team will be:—

Ismail Ali, O. el Arculli, S. Hamet, A. R. Markar, M. I. Abdul-Razack and K. M. Rumjahn.

The game will be played on the C.B.A. ground, commencing at 10 a.m.

PLAYING SOCCER TO KEEP FIT

Seaman Bob Harvey, well-known Navy welterweight boxer, played a very fine game for the Firemen against Stokers "B" in the Cumberland Inter-part football match at Causeway Bay yesterday.

Harvey is known in Shanghai as "Non-Stop Bob Harvey" and he had an exceptionally fine record when he was in the Northern port last October-November. He won all his fights there and made himself a firm favourite with Shanghai boxing fans by reason of his very clean and clever boxing.

Always in perfect trim, Harvey keeps in training all the year round and every evening he may be seen "working out" on the flagship.

EXCITING GAME ON NAVY GROUND

An exciting game on the Navy ground yesterday ended by the Kumaon Rifles team beating an eleven from H.M.S. Herald by the only goal scored.

The teams were very evenly matched and play fluctuated throughout the game. On several occasions the Sailors looked like scoring but weak finishing and infringements in the circle lost the opportunities for them.

At one time they were doing most of the attacking but then the run of play changed and the Kumaons swept up the field and, following a sustained attack, Naik Begumbar netted.

Exchanges then evened up again, with the Herald making strenuous efforts to get on even terms. The Kumaon defence held out, however, and the end come with no change.

The game was played throughout at a fast pace.

THREE HOCKEY MATCHES

DATTA RAM EXCELS FOR RAJPUTS

Datta Ram, full-back of the Rajputana Rifles Hockey Eleven, is probably one of the best, if not actually the best, shots with a hockey stick at present playing in Hong Kong.

He has before this demonstrated his accuracy in no uncertain manner, and yesterday, playing for the Regiment against the Police, he scored two great goals, the second being a perfect shot off a short corner. Lt. Sawal Khan added a third to give the Rajputs victory by three goals to one.

The game was a mixture of brilliant movements and dull periods and of the former the majority went to the credit of the Rajputs.

Lt. Sawal Khan was in fine form and made good use of the many openings created for him by Lt. Pritam Nath at centre. His goal was the result of a brainy move. The shot should actually have been taken by Nath but Khan thought, correctly, that he was in a better position, and sent in a fine shot which beat Chan Kam-ful.

Lt. Pritam Nath played a peculiar, though good game. A centre-forward more often than not is given more opportunities than he himself creates and much of the finishing work is done by him.

Yesterday, however, Lt. Pritam Nath made the majority of the openings and whenever, within or near the circle, he thought one of the other forwards was in an equally suitable position to shoot, he unselfishly flicked the ball across.

Datta Ram's shooting has already been mentioned but his defence was not as sound as usual.

For the Police, Howlett was a hard worker and Narwant Singh took part in some pretty movements, but the other forwards were not very convincing.

The Rajputs opened the scoring through Sawal Khan and not long after Datta Ram added another. Then Man Singh reduced arrears for the Police and the teams crossed over with this score.

After the interval the Regiment did most of the attacking and most of the play was in the Police area. The few breakaways made by the Guardians of the Law at this stage never appeared really dangerous. Shortly before full time Datta Ram scored his second goal from a short corner.

Teams:—

Rajputana Rifles: Hav. Behari Singh; Datta Ram, Lt. Raubir Singh; Lt. Negi, Ghulam Rasoul, Sher Khan; Hav. Shah Wali, Lt. Sawal Khan, Lt. Pritam Nath, Naik Gopal Ram and Naraina Ram.

Police:—Chan Kam-ful; Hayward, Man Singh; Jackson, Brown, Mehar Singh; Teja Singh, Howlett, Buta Singh, Byrne and Narwant Singh.

LT. SKELTON PLAYS ROUSING GAME

In another game on the Navy ground yesterday two submarine teams met and after some enjoyable, if at times one-sided play, H.M.S. Grampus defeated H.M.S. Phoenix by three goals to one. Grampus was the superior team generally but the match was contested in a keen spirit and Phoenix never let up.

Lt. Skelton, the Navy cricketer, played a rousing game at centre-forward. The third goal was the result of a beautiful centre by him. He had wandered out to the left wing and was bringing the ball up.

It seemed it would almost certainly go out of play, but Skelton hooked it back and sent in a perfect centre which the forward, who had slipped up to his place, put into the net past the outstretched foot of the Phoenix goalie.

ROYAL SCOTS HAVE MUCH TALENT

The Royal Scots who arrived on Thursday have not quite settled down yet, but after they have done so the sporting section of the community may look forward to a good deal of activity from their ranks.

In a conversation with one of the members of the Regiment I learned that they have a very useful football eleven and that in hockey too they are considered above the average.

So far as boxing is concerned I learned that they lost two of their best men when they left India for this station as the two concerned went Home. They are, however, expecting a new draft shortly and it is understood that included in them will be some good boxers.

THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY

acting as force upon the less rapid, and these in their turn as force upon still less vibrations, so that these reactions of positive and negative energy seem to be sufficient to account for all the phenomena we experience.

"MENTAL" MATTER

Existing in this infinite consciousness are a number of limited consciousnesses, apparently reflections of the Supreme, and these operate in, among others, a series of vibrations that we call "mental" matter, and it is this mental matter and its conscious reaction to the forces of the immediately more rapidly vibrating higher planes, and mastery thereby over the power that we have to consider.

It is obvious that before we can expect this mental matter to be readily amenable to the higher vibrations, it is necessary that it should become as flexible as possible. This extreme flexibility in a person we call humility, and the combination of the analytical mental with the synthetical higher plane we call wisdom, so that it is obvious that wisdom and understanding go hand in hand, and that without an adequate measure of humility neither wisdom or understanding are possible.

HARMONY NECESSARY

The vibrations of the emotional astral plane must also be completely harmonised before the higher light can shine through and become dynamic through the nerves on the physical plane, and this flexibility of the astral Body call Holiness, so that both Holiness and Humility are required before wisdom can be obtained, and as long as the mental body races, or the astral surges immoderately wisdom is impossible.

The people of my generation are much to be forgiven for backwardness in spiritual development, and indifference to religion, owing to the complete incompetence of most of their religious Instructors. These professional Theologians, qualified merely by academic degrees, and with no first hand information whatever, governed by bishops appointed for political considerations by, at times, completely agnostic statesmen, were veritably the blind leading the blind.

WRONG WAY ROUND

The consequence is that we have been trained to look at every thing wrong way round, and to work from without within, rather than from within without. We have got entirely to revolutionise these methods if we are to attain true understanding, for it is a psychological necessity to learn how to forget, and to rely on one's higher conciousness to recover or obtain information when it is required, and not before. The man whose active mind is crammed with mere facts, is a pedant, not a philosopher, he can never see the wood for the trees, and our system of education, and cramming facts into unprepared minds, and relying on memory as a test of ability, should have been abandoned long ago.

Our line of development is indeed very simple, as really things always are, to become pure and humble of heart, to think rather than feel, and so, by inspiration, to act and do the Will of God, until the time comes when the emotional clowns and egotistical mountebanks who are leading civilization to destruction have been displaced, and the wisdom has at last emerged from their long seclusion, and the Theocratic Brotherhood of the most Holy Cross shall have become the executive leaders of the World.

TRIED TO CHEAT DAIRY FARM

Ho Chi-cheung, 18, unemployed, was sentenced to two months' hard labour by Mr. R. Edwards, at the Central Magistracy, yesterday, when he pleaded guilty to a charge of attempting to obtain goods from the Dairy Farm branch shop, Queen's Road, by falsely pretending he had been sent by Dr. Durran.

Detective-Sergeant MacVey said defendant went to the shop and produced Dr. Durran's order book. While the boy was serving him he received information that the book had been lost and that anyone who attempted to use it was to be arrested. Defendant ran out of the shop when the boy tried to apprehend him and was arrested in Ice House Street by an Indian constable.

His Worship also ordered defendant to be sent back to China on the expiration of his prison term.

HENRY COTTON WORLD'S BEST GOLF PLAYER

Features Of 1937: New Ranking List

From the professional standpoint, the outstanding event of 1937 was the triumph of T. H. Cotton in the Open championship, at Carnoustie, in weather conditions of the most deplorable kind, writes a London correspondent.

In winning the title for the second time in four years he became the first British player to succeed in a field comprising not only the American Ryder Cup team, but other famous players from the United States. In the past seventeen years only four British players—Havers, Cotton, Perry, and Padgham—have won the championship, and only at a time when opposition from America was of no great consequence.

It has fallen to Cotton to win when the opposition represented the full playing strength of the United States. It is not without significance, as an indication of the revival of British golf, that two other players, the brothers R. and C. Whitcombe, finished in front of the entire U.S. Ryder Cup team.

Britain's triumph would have been complete had not our players in some extraordinary way managed to throw away the international match at Southport, where the weather conditions for the Americans were almost as disconcerting as those at Carnoustie.

Tactical blunders were as much responsible for our defeat as the failure on the part of some of our players to consolidate a winning position.

CHANCE FOR A RECORD

The victory of Cotton in the Open adds a new name to the small and select list of those who have won the coveted title more than once. In the last half-century, only eight players, two of them amateurs, have won the Open more than once—W. Park, Jnr. (twice), H. H. Hilton (twice), J. H. Taylor (five times), Vardon (six times), Braid (five times), Hagen (four times), R. T. Jones (three time), and Cotton (twice). With the age factor operating in the case of Hagen, and Jones having retired, no player has a better chance of challenging Vardon's record of six victories than Cotton.

Being only thirty, he has another dozen years in which to win the Open five more times in order to beat the record. As the world's greatest golfer, a fact which the Americans do not attempt to deny, the task should not be impossible, though the competition is fierce and is likely to grow in intensity as the years advance. Because of the nature of it, Cotton's victory at Carnoustie did not convince everybody, the reason being that he missed the green either with the tee shot or the second shot at each of the last nine holes. But in getting down in a chip and a putt, he took a leaf out of the Americans' book.

DEFEAT OF SHUTE

I agree that no man can expect to keep on doing this kind of thing, but the fact remains that in the subsequent match for £500 against Shute, the U.S. match-play champion, Cotton maintained his remarkable touch in the short game. The crushing defeat of Shute added lustre to the Englishman's triumph in the Open. Later he won the German Open and the Czecho-Slovakian Open championships, his record for the season being four firsts, one second, one third, and twice unplaced in eight events.

With the exception of Lacey, who won the Leeds match-play tournament and the Dunlop-Metropolitan stroke-play event, no other player has more than one major success to his credit. In terms of cash, the spoils, therefore, have been more widely distributed than in former years. Curiously enough, the biggest money winner is an assistant, S. L. King, of Knole Park, Sevenoaks, who played in the Ryder Cup contest and covered himself with glory by saving a desperate match against Shute.

ORDER OF MERIT

Disregarding the placings in the list of averages, which are often misleading, my rankings for the past season are as follows: (1), T. H. Cotton; (2), C. A. Whitcombe; (3), A. J. Lacey; (4), S. L. King; (5), P. Alliss; (6), P. J. Mahon; (7), B. Gadd; (8), R. Burton; (9), R. A. Whitcombe; (10), J. Adams. It will be noticed that D. J. Rees, last year's match-play champion, and W. J. Cox, both of whom played against America, are not included in the list.

R. A. Whitcombe, like his two brothers on former occasions, missed winning the Open Championship by a couple of strokes after setting a hot pace on the last day, a pace which spreadeagled the American contingent. As usual, the youngest of the Whitcombes maintained a splendid consistency throughout the season, and finished fifth in the official list of averages.

COOPER CONSISTENT

In the U.S. Harry Cooper, a London-born golfer, stands out as the most consistent player by virtue of his prize money winnings, scoring average and ranking in the race for the Radex trophy. With 490 points, he is 124 points ahead of Guldahl, the Open champion. Over 78 rounds of stroke play, Cooper has the wonderful average of 71.58, and his winnings total £2,714. Thomson, the world's longest driver, has an average of 73, whilst his winnings are less than £1,000. Obviously, long hitting does not pay. In the light of events, the American slogan, "You pay out on the drives, and cash-in on the putts," is not unworthy of consideration.

It is significant that Gene Sarazen, who, not so long ago, was the most prolific money winner in the States, is now eighth on the list, and occupies thirteenth place in the list of averages. In golf, as in other sports, time marches on.

DEATH OF PROF. G. W. DANIELS

Prof. George William Daniels, Pro-Vice-Chancellor of the University of Manchester, died recently in a Salford hospital after a heart attack, at the age of 59.

His career was a remarkable one. He was educated in an elementary school, worked in a mine and in the electrical trade, and then gained a scholarship which took him to Ruskin College.

Seventeen years ago he was appointed Stanley Jevons Professor of Political Economy at Manchester University and Dean of the Faculty of Commerce and Administration.

The authority he possessed in regard to economic subjects made valuable the considerable attention he had devoted to the problems of depressed areas.

VAN ZEELAND REPORT

London, Jan. 28.

The Van Zeeland report on the world economic situation, and the plan for revival, which was published here on Thursday, contains three chapters.

In the first of these he stress the necessity for the maintenance of international relations, declaring that the problem of reviving world trade can be solved only through world co-operation

The second chapter deals at length with the principal obstacles which tend to hinder the normal exchange of goods between the countries.—(Trans-Ocean)

TRANSPORT DEVELOPMENTS IN IRAQ

A Modern development in Iraq's transport facilities will shortly become operative, when a large order for goods and passenger vehicles, placed with John I. Thornycroft & Co., Ltd., through the Crown Agents for the Iraq State Railways, is completed and shipped.

Particular interest attaches to the passenger vehicles, which consist of a number of luxury 20-seated oil-engined coaches, comprising all-metal bodywork fitted to the Thornycroft "Amazon" class, rough track chassis.

This chassis, equipped with twin driving axles and 11.25 in. low pressure tyres and such special fitments as reserve fuel and lubricating oil tanks, sufficient for 400 miles running, and reserve 10-gallon water tank for keeping the radiator water level constant on long journeys in tropical weather.

The coachwork provides 20 individually adjustable reclining seats, and such items as an interior heater, an iced drinking water chest, first aid equipment, and exceptional baggage accommodation.

As regards the goods vehicles, eleven of these are being supplied with similar 3-axle chassis and open-sided bodies, also drawbar gear for towing 6-ton trailers, 16 of which have been ordered.

BRITAIN'S 'BUS REGISTRATIONS

In spite of there being over twenty 'bus manufacturers in Great Britain, statistics show that Leyland Motors, Ltd., supplied 42 per cent. of the motor 'buses registered in Great Britain during the year ended September 30, 1937, in the 27-to 64-seater class.

KEEN FOOTBALL ENCOUNTER

Inter-Part Game At Causeway Bay

So evenly was the football match between the F'cslemen and Stokers "B" at Causeway Bay yesterday that extra time had to be played before a decision was arrived at. The F'cslemen won and thus earned the right to meet the Topmen in the Inter-part (H.M.S. Cumberland) Football competition final at Happy Valley this afternoon.

Yesterday's game provided the large number of spectators with a brand of football that was exceptionally clean and keen. The teams were very evenly balanced and exchanges were fast, the ball being brought up and down the field in rapid succession.

Full-time came with the score sheet blank and it was then decided to play extra time, but it was not till the second ten minutes that Steine scored for the F'cslemen. It was a very spectacular goal, from some twenty yards out on the wing.
